Texas A&M moved to 3-0 with a convincing 44-17 victory over previously-unbeaten Texas Friday night in Austin.

The two teams were both 2-0 going into this Allied Rugby Conference matchup, with Texas having beaten Oklahoma and Texas Tech by very thin margins, and A&M having beaten Baylor and Sam Houston State by large margins.

It was more Aggie offense on Friday. A&M ran out to a 29-0 hafltime lead with tries from fullback Dylan Starks, lock forward Phil Hanson, hooker Andres Diaz, wing Matt Krath, and scrumhalf Matt Theodore, with two conversions from flyhalf Connor Mills.

Hanson scored his second in the second half and Mills added the conversion and then a penalty a few minutes later. It wasn't until the last quarter of the match that the Longhorns got on the scoreboard, with Danny Cotton touching down. Starks answered with his second before Taylor Hayes and Greg Hesch scored late.

Texas A&M 44
Tries: Starks 2, Hanson 2, Diaz, Krath, Theodore
Convs: Mills 3
Pens: Mills

Texas 17
Tries: Cotton, Hayes, Hesch
Convs: Worsnop

With Oklahoma winning 28-0 in a forfeit over Texas Tech because of a mistake by the Tech grounds crew, and with Sam Houston holding off Baylor Friday night 41-34, the Allie standings look like this:

Allied Rugby Conference	W	L	T	PF	PA	PD	BPT	BPL	Pts
Oklahoma University	3	1	0	237	78	159	4	1	17
Texas A&M University	3	0	0	232	27	205	3	0	15
Texas Tech	2	2	0	183	67	116	3	1	12
University of Texas	2	1	0	83	104	-21	2	0	10
Sam Houston	1	3	0	92	316	-224	1	1	6
Baylor University	0	4	0	44	279	-235	1	1	2