One of greatest feats during the Women's College 7s Championship belonged to someone other than reigning champion and heavy favorite Norwich. The only team to go un-scored upon was California, the top seed out of Pool C.

[redacted]